DNS: Creating a DNS Portal User

ⓘ The WiscNet DNS Portal is only accessible while connected to the WiscNet Network.

To gain access to the DNS Portal, you must create your own account. Email validation is required; be sure to validate email within 24 hours of account creation.

Instructions	Screenshot
Go to https://dnsportal.wiscnet.net/ Click Create Account	 WiscNet DNS Portal Username Please input your username Password OTP Token LOCAL Authentication ☐ Remember Me Sign In Create an account Resend confirmation email Powered by PowerDNS-Admin
Fill out the following details: • First Name • Last Name • email (must be valid, you will receive a verification link at this address) • Username • Password • Retype Password • Captcha (can be hard, may take a few tries) Click REGISTER	WiscNet DNS Portal Enter your personal details below 👤 First Name 👤 Last name ✉ Email Enter your account details below 👤 Username 🔒 Password 🔒 Retype password Please complete the CAPTCHA below 0239-53 🛡 CAPTCHA Back Register Powered by PowerDNS-Admin

You will receive an email with a verification link. The link is valid for 24 hours

This email comes from wndns@wiscnet.net

Hello!

Please click the button below to verify your email address.

Verify Email Address

Your confirmation link will be expired in 24 hours. If you did not create an account, no further action is required.

Cheers!

This email was sent from WiscNet DNS Portal

Powered by PowerDNS-Admin.

Once you have verified your account, contact support@wiscnet.net to request account activation.

Please include a list of domains that should be associated with your account along with the username you set.

ⓘ   There is not currently a mechanism to reset your own password. To have password reset, please contact support@wiscnet.net.